

The Imbayakunas

The Imbayakunas are a group highlights the wondrous sound of the Andes. Each musician is from Ecuador and shares a love of performing. Their music continues to evolve and can be described as a World Music fusion between traditional Andean sounds and contemporary Latin rhythms.

The music of The Imbayakunas is infectious; Latin American and North American audiences alike are drawn to their traditional mix of pan flutes, guitar, violin charango and drums. Through their work over the years, they have become the best known local presenters of Andean music in Canada. The group has been touring Canada for the past 19 years. Audiences have enjoyed their music in various provinces in Canada and also in Dubai. The music is a mix of traditional Andean and contemporary Latin sounds. In 2014 and 2017 the group won The Aboriginal People's Choice Award in the category of "Best International Aboriginal Music Release".
